

Faithworkers Branch Education and Training, 2018 Programme.

Clergy Well-being

A regional training day for members of the Faithworkers branch.

Wednesday March 14th, 2018.

10am-4pm

Leeds Church Institute

20 New Market St, Leeds LS1 6DG

This specially designed course for members of the Faithworkers branch has been designed to be engaging, entertaining, interesting and peppered with insightful revelations.

What will I gain from the course?

- An understanding of the impact of stress on your well-being.
- Insights into the organisational causes of stress
- Time to meet other faithworkers and network with them.

How much does it cost?

The course is free to members of Unite. You do not have to be a rep to attend.

Reasonable expenses will be paid, in line with the union's expenses policy, for members from the NEYH and North West regions.

What can I do after the course?

- You will be able to deal with your own stresses and assist others in reducing their stress.
- You will be able to help your faith organisation promote wellbeing for clergy and all faithworkers.
- You will be able to train as a workplace representative to help others.
- You do not need to be a rep already to attend this course.

How can I apply?

Complete the attached form and return it to adrian.judd@unitetheunion.org

You will receive confirmation that a place has been allocated to you on the course.

Places are limited to members from the North of England (NEYH and NW regions of Unite).

Closing date for applications: Friday 10th February
